

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM No. M-11803 of 2015

Date of decision: 10.04.2015

Munni Devi and others

....Petitioners

V/s.

State of Haryana and others

....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE NAVITA SINGH

Present: Mr. Paramjit Jakhar, Advocate for the petitioners.

NAVITA SINGH, J.

The bail application under Section 438 Cr.P.C. filed by the petitioners before the Additional Sessions Judge, Hisar was decided on 10.02.2015 whereby interim relief was granted to the petitioners with direction to appear before trial Court within 21 days and thereafter to appear regularly before that Court.

Petitioners did not appear before the trial Court as per the time limit given in the order. They, then applied before the same Court for extension of time for putting in appearance before the trial Court.

The ground taken for not being able to appear within the stipulated period, was that the petitioners were busy due to marriage of their sister's daughter. Neither the date of marriage was given nor it was explained as to how the girl, who was getting married, could be sister's daughter of all the petitioners. Petitioners Munni Devi and Murti Devi are both stated to be widows of Raghubir Singh which is also not understandable.

In any case, the reason given was nothing but a lame excuse and the Court below very rightly observed in the order passed on 13.03.2015 that the petitioners abused the concession of interim bail granted to them and they had no regard for the order of the Court and further that reason given in the application is not justified. The order passed by the Additional Sessions Judge, Hisar is well reasoned and does not call for any interference.

The request for anticipatory bail made by the petitioners is another abuse of the process of Court.

Dismissed.

April 10, 2015
Divyanshi

(NAVITA SINGH)
JUDGE