

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM No.M-11947 of 2015 (O&M)

Date of decision:17.07.2015

Smt. Manjit Kaur

... Petitioner

Vs.

State of Punjab

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.

Present:- Mr. Sumeet Puri, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Nikhil.K. Chopra, DAG Punjab.

Mr. Aminder Singh, Advocate for the complainant.

TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA, J.

The present petition has been filed under Section 438 Cr.P.C seeking concession of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.190 dated 09.11.2013 under Sections 406/498-A IPC, registered at Police Station Bhawanigarh, District Sangrur.

During the course of arguments today, it has gone uncontroverted that the petitioner had earlier filed CRM No.M-31 of 2014 before this Court seeking same very concession and which was declined in the light of detailed order passed on 01.05.2014.

Counsel appearing for the petitioner has not been able to demonstrate any change of circumstances thereafter that would possibly justify filing of the present petition seeking concession of anticipatory bail.

At this stage, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner prays for withdrawal of the present petition and states that the petitioner shall surrender within a period of one week from today. He, however, raises an additional submission that if, thereafter, an application under Section 439 Cr.P.C. seeking benefit of regular bail is filed, directions be issued for early disposal of such application.

As per submission made by counsel appearing for the petitioner, petition stands dismissed as withdrawn.

It is, however, observed that in case the petitioner surrenders within a period of one week from today and thereafter files an application seeking regular bail, the same would be dealt with on merits and the competent Court would make every endeavor to expedite the hearing and disposal of the same.

Disposed of.
