

In the High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh

CRM M-11996 of 2015
Date of Decision: April 20, 2015

Harinder Kaur Saini

.... Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab and another

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PARAMJEET SINGH

Present: Ms. Gursharan K. Mann, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Paramjeet Singh, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure has wrongly been mentioned in this petition, it should have been Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure as petitioner is seeking quashing of FIR.

Learned counsel for the petitioner, after arguing for some time, states that she may be permitted to withdraw the instant petition with liberty to raise the objections before the competent Court. Learned counsel further prays that personal appearance of the petitioner before the trial Court may be exempted as she is sick lady and is chronic diabetics and under medication. Petitioner is residing at Hyderabad with her daughter.

Dismissed as withdrawn with liberty to raise all the objections before the competent Court. This Court deems it fit and proper that if petitioner moves an application for exemption from personal appearance before the trial Court, the same shall be considered sympathetically.
