The allegations against the petitioner are that his wife committed suicide on 28.08.2014 by hanging herself. The marriage took place in the year 2000. The wife left a suicide note, in which there is mention about the petitioner suspecting her character. In the FIR No.779, dated 28.08.2014, under Sections 306 and 498-A of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 (in short 'IPC'), registered at Police Station Sadar Hisar, District Hisar, the allegations were also levelled about the demand of dowry.

The petitioner was arrested on 28.08.2014. Now the challan has been presented and charges have been framed against the petitioner under Section 306 IPC. No witness has been examined so far, as stated by learned counsel for the petitioner.

The petitioner is in custody since last five months. The disposal of the case will take time. Therefore, there is no ground for further detention of the petitioner. Accordingly, the present petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing personal bonds in the sum of ₹50,000/- each with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial court, subject to the following conditions:

- i) The petitioner will continue to appear on each and every date of hearing.
- ii) He will not tamper with the evidence.
- lii) He will not leave the country without prior permission of the Court.
