Mr. SKS Brar, Advocate for respondents No.2 and 3.

NAVITA SINGH, J. (Oral)

This is a petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, for quashing of FIR No. 747 dated 26.12.2013, under Sections 406, 498-A IPC registered at Police Station Sector-34, Chandigarh, on the basis of compromise, along with all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom.

In compliance to the order dated 20.02.2015 of this Court, report is received from the trial Court, where statements of the parties were recorded. Respondents No.2 and 3 had appeared before the Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Chandigarh and made a statement that they do not want to pursue the present case.

Counsel for the private respondents has affirmed the factum of compromise.

It has been stated by counsel for the parties that the parties have compromised the matter. The dispute between the parties was of personal nature. In view of this, there should not be any impediment in allowing the parties to compromise the matter. Support to this view can be had from the authority Madan Mohan Abbot vs. State of Punjab, 2008 (2) RCR (Criminal) 429, wherein Hon'ble the Supreme Court has ruled that in such type of cases where the dispute is of personal nature, Court should ordinarily accept the compromise.

In view of the above, the petition is accepted. The above-said FIR and the proceedings connected therewith are hereby quashed.

Disposed of.
