ANITA CHAUDHRY, J(ORAL)

The petitioner is seeking regular bail in FIR No. 154 dated 12.05.2014, registered at Police Station, Sector 55, Faridabad, District Faridabad, under Sections 148, 149, 323, 302, 341 IPC.

Heard.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner was arrested on 24.05.2014 and the only allegation against him is that he had caused simple injury to Surender. The challan had been filed in August 2014 and prosecution has not been able to examine its witnesses and statement was made on the last date of hearing that they would be filing application under Section 319 Cr.P.C.

On the last date of hearing, the case had been adjourned to enable the State counsel to inform whether Surender had been examined.

Learned State counsel submits that three witnesses have been examined and Surender has not been examined and the complainant side wants to move an application under Section 319 Cr.P.C.

The petitioner is in custody for over ten months. The allegation against him is that he had inflicted simple injuries to Surender. He had not inflicted injury upon the deceased. The trial would take time.

Without commenting on the merits of the case and considering the role played by the him, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing adequate bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court. The petitioner would not in any manner influence the complainant or the witnesses.
