

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

(219)

CRM-M-12842-2015

Decided on: September 29, 2015.

Ravinder

.... Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

..... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE M.M.S. BEDI

Present: Mr. Sanjeev Kumar Panwar, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. C.S. Bakshi, Addl. A.G., Haryana.

Mr. Angel Sharma, Advocate, for the complainant.

M.M.S. BEDI, J (ORAL)

Petitioner is alleged to have fired from his revolver resulting in the death of Mohit. Petitioner claims that as he was attacked with an axe by the deceased, he fired in self defence.

I have considered the facts and circumstances of the case and I am of the opinion that it is pre-mature to determine on appreciation of evidence whether it is a case of exceeding self defence or a case of self defence entitling the petitioner the benefit of doubt.

No ground is made out to grant the concession of regular bail to the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that since it is a case of self defence, he may be permitted to withdraw the petition, at this stage with liberty to establish his self defence before the trial Court.

Disposed of as withdrawn, at this stage.
