MAHESH GROVER, J.

This is a petition under Section 439 Cr.P.C. praying for release of the petitioner on bail in terms thereof in a case registered vide FIR No.169 dated 3.9.2014 under Sections 323, 307, 302, 506, 148, 149 IPC, at Police Station Sadar Ambala, District Ambala.

According to the FIR some persons of the village were sitting, consuming liquor and quarreling with each other. On being asked to stop a fight ensued in the evening when few persons armed with knives came and attacked the complainant and victims. One of them Ram Chander died on account of knife injuries inflicted in his abdomen and another Sant Kumar was injured. The petitioner has been attributed role of giving kicks and fist blows to the complainant, his son Pankaj and his nephew Sant Kumar.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that no injury to the deceased has been caused by the petitioner and he has been falsely implicated.

Learned counsel for the respondent, on the other hand, has pointed to the nature of serious allegations to oppose the bail.

On due consideration and noticing the fact that the petitioner has not been attributed any injury to the deceased and he being unarmed would be entitled to the concession of bail particularly when he has been in custody since 3.9.2014 and challan has already been submitted in the case.

Accordingly, the bail application is accepted and the petitioner is directed to be enlarged on bail in terms of Section 439 Cr.P.C.to the satisfaction of the learned trial court.

Petition allowed.
