The present petition is for direction to the trial Court for speedy trial and for framing charge on the next date, i.e. 02.06.2012.

Zimni orders have been reproduced which show that there was no delay on the part of the Court because adjournment was sought by the accused and also in between supplementary challan was filed.

If petitions like this are entertained, the Court below will not be able to work. However, since the petitioner is complainant and is stated to be an old lady, the trial Court is directed to make all efforts to proceed with the trial expeditiously and get the statement of the complainant recorded by an early date.

The petition stands disposed of accordingly.
