It is not in dispute that petitioner has submitted to the process of law and is now appearing before the trial Court.

This petition had been preferred by the petitioner praying for quashing of the order passed by the learned trial Court under Section 82 of the Code of Criminal Procedure on the ground that proper procedure has not been followed for proclamation.

Be that as it may, considering the fact that the purpose of procuring the presence of the petitioner has been achieved as he is now concededly participating in the trial, I am of the view that the present petition has been rendered infructuous and the same is disposed of, as such.
