TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.J

Learned counsel for the petitioner would at the very outset make a submission that he is confining the scope of the instant petition filed under section 482 Cr.P.C as regards seeking directions to the official respondents for protecting the life and liberty of the petitioner on the basis of an apprehension that has been voiced in the petition of facing a threat to the same at the hands of respondents no.6 to 14.

Without even going into the correctness of the averments made in the petition and without making any observations on merits, liberty is granted to the petitioner to approach respondent no.3 i.e. S.S.P., District Patiala as regards raising a grievance confined to the threat that he is facing to his life and liberty and in the eventuality of the petitioner doing so, respondent no.3 would be obligated to look into the matter and to thereafter take steps as he may deem fit and which are warranted strictly in accordance with law.
