

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-14614 of 2015
Date of Decision: 11.05.2015

Jasvir Kaur

... Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

... Respondent

CORAM:-HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJ MOHAN SINGH

Present: Mr. Hitesh Verma, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Rajesh K. Sheoran, Addl, AG, Haryana.

Mr. J.S Gill, Advocate for the complainant.

RAJ MOHAN SINGH, J. (Oral)

Learned counsel for the petitioner inter alia submits that offences in terms of Sections 386/389/506 IPC are triable by Magistrate. It is only with the aid of Section 328 IPC, accusation has made against the petitioner that effort was made by her in connivance with others to administer poisonous substance to complainant.

Learned counsel states that complainant has not been subjected to any medical examination nor there is any such incriminating material collected by police in order to attract culpability in terms of Section 328 IPC. Challan has already been presented. Petitioner is in custody since 20.02.2015.

Mr. Sheoran, on instructions from ASI Amarnath however states that co-accused are yet to be arrested. Factum of filing challan has been admitted. Learned counsel for the complainant however, strongly opposed the bail application on the ground that petitioner is having dubious background. Charanjeet Kaur is main accused. Daughter of Charanjeet Kaur is also having doubtful antecedents.

Looking to the above facts and circumstances and without advertng to merit of the case, petitioner can be granted benefit of regular bail at this stage.

Let the petitioner be enlarged on bail, subject to furnishing adequate bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Sirsa.

Nothing expressed hereinabove would be taken to be an opinion on merits of the case.
