ANITA CHAUDHRY, J. (ORAL)

The petitioner is seeking regular bail in FIR No. 344 dated 25.08.2014 registered at Police Station Sadar, Sonapat, District Sonapat, under Sections 366, 376(2)(d), 506, 344, 120-B IPC.

Heard.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the prosecutrix had eloped with Munna who is brother of the petitioner and regarding this an FIR was registered in Delhi. He urges that prosecutrix had levelled allegations of rape against the petitioner, his brother and Jahul and she had given birth to a child and had remained outside her house since January 2013. He further states an affidavit was also given by the prosecutrix as Preeti. He further states that wife of the petitioner has also been named who had been allowed bail. He further states that challan has been submitted and charge has been framed and the statement of the prosecutrix has been recorded. He further states that petitioner in custody since August 2014 and the trial is taking time.

Learned State counsel does not dispute that an FIR was registered in Delhi wherein family of the prosecutrix had made allegations that Munna had enticed the girl and had taken her away with the intention to marry her.

Without commenting on the merits of the case and considering the fact that investigation is over and challan has been presented, statement of the prosecutrix has also been recorded and trial will take long time to conclude, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his furnishing adequate bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court.
