Crl.Misc.No.M-15178 of 2014

Date of decision : 6.4.2015

Kanwar Pal and others

....Petitioners

Versus

State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER

....

Present : Mr.Bijender Dhankhar, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Pravindera Singh Chauhan, Addl.AG, Haryana.

Mr. Manoj Kumar Palwal, Advocate for the complainant.

MAHESH GROVER, J.

The petitioners pray for their release on bail in terms of Section 438 Cr.P.C. in a case registered vide FIR No.97 dated 12.4.2014 under Sections 148, 149, 324, 326, 341, 427, 506 IPC at Police Station Sadar Ballabgarh, District Faridabad.

The petitioners, namely, Kanwar Pal, Bittu and Ranbir accompanied few others in order to interfere in the possession of the complainant on the land and causing injuries to the complainant and his son as also destroying his tractor.

Learned counsel for the petitioners contends that a perusal of the FIR would reveal no serious role attributed to them and with only general allegations levelled against them.

This Court on 5.5.2014 directed the petitioners to appear before the Investigating Officer and join the investigation subject to the compliance of Section 438(2) Cr.P.C., pursuant to which they have statedly appeared before the Investigating Officer, which fact has not been denied by the learned counsel appearing for the respondent-State, who, however, contends that the recovery of weapons is yet to be effected from the petitioners.

Be that as it may, noticing the fact that there are general allegations against the petitioners with no specific injury and also noticing the fact that the petitioners have joined the investigation, I deem it appropriate to accept the petition qua petitioners Kanwar Pal, Bittu and Ranbir to make the interim directions absolute subject to the condition that the petitioners continue to comply with the provisions of Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.

Petition allowed.
