Instant petition has been filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for quashing of FIR No. 88, dated 19.07.2012, under Sections 279, 337, 338 of the Indian Penal Code, registered at Police Station Sarabha Nagar, Ludhiana and all subsequent proceedings arising thereof, as well as, exemption from personal appearance of the petitioner and for directing the trial Court to expedite the trial.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the record.

Learned counsel for the petitioner candidly admitted that charge has been framed much earlier i.e. in the year 2013. Now, he is seeking quashing of the FIR in question.

No ground for quashing of FIR is made out.

So far as other reliefs are concerned, the petitioner will be at liberty to move appropriate application before the trial Court. On doing so, the trial Court shall pass an appropriate orders in accordance with law.

With above observation, instant petition is dismissed.
