Versus

State of Haryana

...Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE ANITA CHAUDHRY

Present: Mr. J.S. Hooda, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Deepak K. Grewal, DAG, Haryana.

ANITA CHAUDHRY, J(ORAL)

The petitioner is seeking regular bail in FIR No.135 dated 20.02.2015, registered under Sections 420, 467, 468, 471, 120-B IPC and Sections 66, 66F of I.T. Act, Police Station City Palwal, District Palwal.

Heard.

The counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner was only a office boy and the company is owned by Mandeep and the police has not challaned Mandeep. He further states that Gulshan and Chandresh are on bail.

The State counsel states that the allegations against the petitioner are that he was running the concern and was selling sim cards on fake identities and there are more allegations against him.

The police has recovered number of procured identity cards, computer printer, sim cards and photographs. The investigation is over. The trial would take time. Without commenting on the merits of the case, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is directed to be released on regular bail on execution of adequate personal and surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate, however, subject to the condition that the petitioner would not engage himself in any illegal activity for which he has been challaned. The petitioner would give an undertaking in this regard before the Court concerned while furnishing bail bonds.

The State would be free to file an application for cancellation of the bail in case he is found engaged in the same activity.
