CRM No. M-16065 of 2015 (O&M)
Date of Decision: 15.5.2015

Randeep Singh @ Hardeep Singh

--Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab & another

--Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.

Present:- Mr. Ritesh Pandey, Advocate for the petitioner.

TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.J

The instant petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C seeking quashing of F.I.R No.414 dated 3.8.2006 under Sections 323, 324, 452, 427, 148, 149 I.P.C, registered at Police Station, Sadar Jalandhar, District Jalandhar and all proceedings emanating therefrom on the basis of a compromise, which as per counsel has been entered into between the parties.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has been heard at length.

The uncontroverted facts that emerge from the pleadings on record are that even though, the petitioner had joined trial proceedings at the initial stage but thereafter vide order dated 6.1.2011, passed by learned J.M.I.C, Jalandhar the petitioner was declared as a Proclaimed Offender. The alleged compromise is stated to have been entered into between the parties in the year 2014. It has also gone uncontroverted that co-accused namely Manpreet and Parminder Singh have been convicted by the Trial Court under sections 323, 324, 452, 427, 148, 149 I.P.C and awarded sentence of 2 years R.I. In the appeal preferred the appellate court vide judgement dated 24.9.2012 has maintained conviction but granted the benefit of probation.

Under such circumstances, this Court would not be inclined to show indulgence to the present petitioner, who had evaded the process of law and has been declared a Proclaimed Offender in the year 2011, even though, a compromise may have been effected much thereafter.

Faced with such a situation, counsel for the petitioner prays for withdrawal of the instant petition.

Prayer is allowed.

Dismissed as withdrawn.

However, an additional submission made by counsel is accepted to the extent that in case the petitioner duly surrenders before the Trial Court within a period of one week from today and files an application seeking bail, the Trial Court shall make every endeavor to expedite hearing and final disposal of the same and it would be open for the court to take a sympathetic view in the light of the compromise that is stated to have been entered into between the parties.

Disposed of.
