Versus

State of Punjab

--Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.

Present:- Mr. R.K. Gupta, Advocate for the petitioner.

TEJINDER SINGH DHINDSA.J

Instant petition has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C seeking quashing of a summoning order dated 19.7.2014, passed by the learned J.M.I.C, Tarn Taran in terms of which the present petitioner has been summoned to face trial in relation to offence under sections 323, 326 I.P.C. Further challenge is to the order dated 16.3.2015, passed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Tarn Taran, whereby the revision petition preferred by the petitioner against the summoning order has been dismissed.

Counsel for the petitioner, at the very outset, would make a statement that he is not pressing the instant petition on merits. He, however, makes a submission that in view of the advanced age of the petitioner and coupled with the chronic ailment that he is suffering from, an application seeking exemption from personal appearance has already been filed before the Trial Court and which is still pending adjudication and the same be directed to be dealt with leniently.

As per statement made by counsel for the petitioner, instant petition is dismissed as not pressed.

It is, however, observed that in case an application seeking exemption from personal appearance is filed before the Trial Court, the same would be dealt with sympathetically in the eventuality of the petitioner being found to be suffering from a serious health ailment and keeping in view the age factor also.

Disposed of.
