1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment ?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not ?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

RAJ MOHAN SINGH, J.

On 16.01.2015, this Court while granting interim relief, passed the following order:-

“Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that initially, the petitioners were summoned only under Sections 452/323 IPC and later on, they were released on regular bail. He further submits that the petitioners were regularly appearing before the trial Court and subsequently, as per opinion of the Court, prima facie, an offence under Sections 3 and 4 of the Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities Act) is made out. The petitioners moved an application for anticipatory bail, which has been dismissed only on the ground that the same is not maintainable, keeping in view the allegations. Learned counsel also submits that the petitioners have already joined the Court proceedings and were released on regular bail. He further submits that nothing is to be recovered from the petitioners and they are ready to abide by all terms and conditions, to be imposed by this Court or by the trial Court.

Notice of motion for 03.03.2015.

However, in case of arrest on addition of offence under Section 3 and 4 of the Scheduled Caste and Scheduled Tribes (Prevention of Atrocities Act), the petitioners shall be released on interim bail on their furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court.”

Learned counsel for the petitioners states that initially the petitioners were summoned under Sections 452 and 323 IPC and they were released on bail. Subsequently, petitioners were sought to be summoned for enhanced culpability in terms of Section 3/4 of SC/ST Act 1989.

In pursuance of the interim order, petitioners have already appeared before the trial Court and they have been ordered to be admitted on interim bail to the satisfaction of the trial Court.

In view of aforesaid, the order dated 16.01.2015 is made absolute.

Petitions stands disposed of.
