The petitioners are seeking regular bail in FIR No. 155 dated 19.07.2011, registered under Sections 148, 149, 302, 323, 325 IPC at Police Station Nagina.

Learned counsel for the petitioners states that the main accused is Ganeshi who had given the farsa blow on the head of the deceased and the injuries attributed to the petitioners is on the left leg and on the eye of Jas Ram. He further urges that petitioners are in custody since September 2011 and the trial is not proceeding and bailable warrants against the witnesses could not be executed for more than 1 ½ years. He further states that he has zimni orders with him which show the pace at which the trial is proceeding.

The zimni orders had been produced at the time of arguments which show that number of adjournments were taken by the prosecution to produce the private witnesses and ultimately 4 witnesses were given up by the prosecution.

The petitioners are in custody since September 2011 and they are not the main accused.

Without commenting on the merits of the case and considering the fact that trial is taking time, the petition is allowed and the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on their furnishing adequate bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court.
