- iii. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This is a petition for the grant of regular bail in case bearing FIR No. 263 dated 29.05.2013, under Sections 201/302/34/364/392 IPC, registered at Police Station Samalkha, District Panipat.

Learned counsel has argued that apart from the merits of the case the fact is that the petitioner has now been in custody since 30.05.2013 and the trial is nowhere near conclusion. Learned DAG, on instructions from ASI Krishan Kumar, states that more than half of the witnesses have already been examined and the prosecution undertakes to conclude its entire evidence by 30.04.2015(subject to the fact that the petitioner does not obstruct the same) and in these circumstances there is no occasion to release the petitioner on bail.

I find weight in the argument of learned DAG and consequently dismiss the petition but direct the trial Court that in case the prosecution evidence is not concluded by 30.04.2015(subject to the petitioner not obstructing the same) it would release the petitioner on bail to its satisfaction.

Petition stands disposed of.

Since the main case has been decided, the Criminal Misc.Application, if any also stands disposed of.
