CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JITENDRA CHAUHAN

JITENDRA CHAUHAN, J.

By way of the present petition, the petitioner seeks pre-arrest bail under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, in case FIR No.123 dated 05.02.2014, registered under Sections 406, 420 of the Indian Penal Code, at P.S. City, Distt. Sirsa.

The learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner along with the co-accused have been engaged in imparting education through correspondence courses. The accused have already been granted bail in a number of similar cases.

On the other hand, the learned State counsel, on instructions submits that the accused are involved in a large number of FIRs registered in various parts of the country. The Crime Branch is still investigating the matter. Challan has already been presented against co-accused, Mahesh. The petitioner along with his co-accused has cheated thousands of students and has usurped crores of rupees by flouting various schemes. He has not returned anything.

Heard.

Keeping in view the nature and allegations and the seriousness of the offence alleged, this Court feels that the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is necessary to unearth the conspiracy. Without custodial interrogation of the accused, the modus operandi of the accused involved in this racket cannot be ascertained. Misappropriated money is yet to be recovered. The allegations against the petitioner are of serious nature. The petitioner does not deserve any concession of bail.

In view of the above, the present petition is hereby dismissed.
