PARAMJEET SINGH, J. (ORAL)

Reply on behalf of respondent No.2, filed in Court today, is taken on record.

Instant petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure read with Article 227 of the Constitution of India has been filed for quashing the FIR No.248 dated 27.12.2012 registered under Sections 406, 498-A IPC at Police Station City Kharar, Punjab, along with all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that petitioner had earlier filed a petition for quashing the FIR in question and said petition was dismissed as withdrawn with liberty to raise all the points at the appropriate stage before the trial Court. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that even the investigation is not complete.

In view of the earlier order passed by this Court giving liberty to raise all the points at the appropriate stage before the trial Court, present petition is not maintainable.

Learned counsel then submitted that there is no bar in filing the second petition.

Filing of repeated petitions without there being any change of circumstances has been deprecated by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in State of Tamil Nadu v. S.A. Raja, 2005(4) R.C.R.(Criminal) 799.

In view of above, I do not find any ground to quash the FIR in question.

Dismissed.
