Petitioner, by way of instant petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C., seeks issuance of a direction to the respondents No.2 to 5 to protect the life and liberty of the petitioner and her family members, at the hands of respondents No.6 & 7.

Reply by way of affidavit dated 08.06.2015 of Senior Superintendent of Police, Ludhiana (Rural) filed in the Court today, is taken on record and copy thereof has been supplied to learned counsel for the petitioner.

In compliance of the orders dated 01.06.2015 and 05.06.2015 passed by this Court, Kamaljeet Singh has been presented before this Court.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is still living with her in-laws' family but facing threats to her life and liberty at the hands of private respondents. However, this allegation is denied by learned counsel for respondents No.6 & 7.

Be that as it may, present petition is disposed of, with a direction to Senior Superintendent of Police, Ludhiana (Rural)-respondent No.2 to take appropriate action and to ensure that no harm is caused to the life and liberty of the petitioner, at the hands of private respondents. As per the averments taken in the present petition and argued by learned counsel for the petitioner, since the petitioner has married with Kamaljeet Singh and is living with his parents i.e. in-laws of the petitioner, respondents No.6 & 7 are restrained from interfering in the married life of the petitioner, as she has already been granted protection by this Court vide order dated 20.03.2015 passed in CRM-M-9316-2015 (Kamaljeet Singh and anr. Vs. State of Punjab and others).

With the abovesaid observations made and directions issued, present petition stands disposed of.
