RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

In view of the nature of controversy involved and also by efflux of time, cause of action does not seem to be surviving in the present writ petition. This seems to be the reason that neither anybody has come present to press or oppose the writ petition.

In view of the above, present writ petition is disposed of, as having been rendered infructuous. However, since nobody is present on behalf of either of the parties, liberty is granted to the petitioners to get the writ petition revived, if necessity arises.
