CHANDIGARH

Crl.Misc.No.M-19191 of 2015(O&M)

Date of Decision : 28.07.2015

....Petitioners

Versus

State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER

Present : Mr. Rajiv Sidhu, Advocate for the petitioner

Mr. Anmol Malik, AAG, Haryana

MAHESH GROVER, J.

The petitioner prays for grant of regular bail in terms of Section 439 Cr.P.C in case FIR no.655 dated 9.8.2014 registered under Section 346 IPC at Police Station City Jind, District Jind (offences under Sections 302, 201, 34 IPC added later on).

The facts indicate a blind murder where the death of the deceased was ascertained from the unidentified bodies recovered from the canal.

The petitioner has been attributed the role of helping the other accused in disposing of the body by dumping it in the canal. However, his role in the murder has not been ascertained. Two of the co-accused are already on bail and the trial is in progress. The petitioner has been primarily named in the disclosure statement of the co-accused.

On due consideration of the matter and noticing the aforesaid facts where no direct role has been attributed to the petitioner in causing the death of the deceased through homicide, I am of the view that petitioner deserves the concession of bail in terms of Section 439 Cr.P.C, particularly when the trial is likely to take some time and co-accused have already been released on bail. Besides, petitioner has been named at the behest of a co-accused. Petition stands allowed. It is directed that the petitioner shall be released on bail in terms of Section 439 Cr.P.C. Bail to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court.

Nothing said herein shall be construed to be an expression on the merits of the case.
