CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER

MAHESH GROVER, J.

The instant petition is totally misconceived. The petitioner prays that an appropriate case be registered against the private respondents regarding the incident which he alleged in the petition on account of some business transactions. The petitioner is at liberty to take appropriate remedy under the law by filing a complaint or approach the court of Magistrate.

In so far as the allegations of the petitioner that he has been unduly harassed by the police is concerned, it is directed that in case the petitioner is wanted in some offence or wanted by the police regarding some investigation, they would ensure compliance of the provisions of Section 160 Cr.P.C.

Petition stands disposed of.
