1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This petition has been filed for the grant of anticipatory bail in case bearing FIR No. 3 dated 11.01.2014, udder Sections 420/120-B IPC, registered at Police Station Sadhaura.

The allegation is that 14 years ago the brother of the petitioner misused the petitioner's certificate to get a job in the Army. Thereafter the said brother died and the further allegation is that his wife obtained pension on account of his death.

Learned counsel has argued that the petitioner is ready to face the trial and , in case he is found guilty he would definitely be liable to punishment but as on date his custodial interrogation should not be insisted upon. Learned Addl.AG has not been able to convince the Court as to what purpose will be served by the custodial interrogation of the petitioner since the entire transaction is on the basis of documents.

In the circumstances I see no reason to deny the concession of anticipatory bail to the present petitioner. Let him appear before the investigating officer who shall release him on anticipatory bail to his satisfaction subject to the conditions as envisaged under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.

Petition stands disposed of.
