... Petitioner

Vs.

UT of Chandigarh

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr. D.S. Sandhu, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. J.S. Toor, Addl. PP, UT Chandigarh.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Petitioner seeks bail pending trial in FIR No.502 dated 20.12.2014 under Sections 307, 326, 324 IPC, registered at Police Station Sector 11, Chandigarh.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner is a student. He refers to the MLR (Annexure P-2), to contend that injury was found simple on the person of one of the injured whereas the second injury was although grievous but not dangerous to life. Learned counsel for the petitioner would next contend that the petitioner was released on interim bail twice and every time, he has surrendered back in time. Petitioner is not having any criminal background. Neither he is a previous convict nor he has been found involved in any other case. He prays for allowing the present petition.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State (UT, Chandigarh), on instructions from SI Satnam Singh, submits that petitioner is the only accused who caused simple as well as grievous injuries on the persons of both the injured with a sharp-edged weapon. He further submits that out of total 16 PWs, 8 have already been examined and the next date of hearing before the learned trial Court is 06.07.2015. He further submits that trial will conclude in the near future. He prays for dismissal of the present petition.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties at considerable length, after careful perusal of the record of the case and giving thoughtful consideration to the contentions raised, this Court is of the considered opinion that in view of the totality of facts and circumstances of the case and particularly the sheats of injuries caused by the petitioner, he has not been found entitled for bail pending trial. The trial is also near conclusion because out of 16 PWs, 8 have already been examined and the next date of hearing is 06.07.2015.

In view of the above and without commenting anything further on merits of the case at this stage, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, present petition is dismissed. No case for bail pending trial has been made out.

Dismissed.
