1. Whether Reporters of local papers may be allowed to see the judgment?
2. To be referred to the Reporters or not?
3. Whether the judgment should be reported in the Digest?

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This is a petition for quashing of FIR on the basis of compromise. Statements have been recorded and the report has been received whereby it has been purported that the same has been recorded without any pressure or fear.

Learned DAG has however pointed out that this is a case where serious offence under Section 307 IPC was lodged.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has pointed out that there were four accused originally and the three accused against whom trial started have been acquitted and that judgment is annexed as Annexure P-2. When confronting with this fact, learned DAG has not been able to point out why the present case should not be allowed.

Consequently, this petition is allowed and the above said FIR and all consequential proceedings arising therefrom are quashed qua petitioners.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending Criminal Misc. Application, if any, also stands disposed of.
