Jagga Singh

..... Petitioner

vs

State of Punjab

..... Respondent

Present Mr. Manpreet Singh Dua, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Rajesh Bindal, J.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner, who is facing trial in FIR No. 49 dated 25.3.2011, registered under Sections 379/411/ 120-B IPC at Police Station, Sadar Fazlika, was granted bail. He was regularly attending the hearings. However, on account of certain unavoidable circumstances, he could not appear on 19.11.2014. He immediately filed anticipatory bail application before the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Fazlika, which was allowed. The petitioner was permitted to surrender before the trial court/ Duty Magistrate on or before the date fixed subject to deposit of ₹ 3,000/- as security till disposal of the proceedings under Section 446 Cr. P.C. The petitioner being a daily wager could not comply with the condition of deposit of the aforesaid amount. The aforesaid bail application was dismissed on 4.2.2015 on account of non-compliance of deposit of ₹ 3,000/-. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that he will now comply with the aforesaid condition within three weeks and appear before the learned trial Court to face the trial.

On appearance of the petitioner before the Court below on compliance of the condition imposed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge, Fazlika, vide order dated 26.11.2014, within three weeks and on furnishing of fresh bail bonds, the petitioner shall be enlarged on bail, pending trial.

The petition stands disposed of.
