The petitioner has sought quashing of the FIR No.51 dated 04.12.2011 registered under Sections 406 and 498-A IPC at Police Station Woman Cell Patiala, on the basis of compromise with the complainant.

This court vide order dated 21.01.2015 called the report of the trial court qua the genuineness of the compromise. The trial court after recording the statements of the parties has also reported that the compromise is voluntary and without any pressure or coercion.

The Full Bench of this Court in the case of Kulwinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab and another 2007 (3) RCR (Crl.) 1052 has held that the FIR can be quashed on the basis of compromise by exercising inherent power under Section 482 Cr. P. C., even if the offences are not compoundable.

In view of the compromise arrived at between the parties, the continuance of the proceedings against the petitioner would amount to misuse of the process and there will be no fruitful out come thereof as due to settlement between the parties, the trial is likely to result into acquittal.

Having regard to the aforesaid and drawing sustenance from the observations made in Full Bench judgment rendered in Kulwinder Singh's case (supra), this petition is accepted and the FIR No. 51 dated 04.12.2011 registered under Sections 406 and 498-A IPC at Police Station Woman Patiala along with all consequential proceedings arising therefrom is quashed.
