

In the High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh

CRM M-20265 of 2015
Date of Decision: June 22, 2015

Kamna Khurana

... Petitioner

Versus

State of U.T.

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE PARAMJEET SINGH

Present: Mr. Rajinder Kumar Goel, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Paramjeet Singh, J. (Oral)

Instant petition has been filed under Section 438 of the Code of Criminal Procedure for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner in case FIR No. 100, dated 27.05.2015, under Sections 420, 120-B of the Indian Penal Code, registered at Police Station Sector 19, Chandigarh.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the house in question is not in the name of the petitioner. Learned counsel further contends that the alleged payment has been given to Rajan Khurana, husband of the petitioner. Learned counsel further contends that petitioner has joined the investigation when interim relief was granted by the trial Court.

I have considered the contentions raised by learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the record.

There are serious allegations of fraud and fabrication of the documents. The petitioner along with her husband has allegedly cheated the complainant to the tune of Rs. 35 lacs by way of earnest money and total transaction was effected for a sum of Rs.1,26,00,000/- on the basis of forged and fabricated documents.

Keeping in view the seriousness of the allegations against the petitioner, no ground for anticipatory bail is made out.

Dismissed.
