Criminal Misc. No. M-20319 of 2015

Date of decision : June 26, 2015

Parveen

....Petitioner

versus

State of Haryana

....Respondent

Coram: Hon'ble Mr. Justice Fateh Deep Singh

Present : Mr. Lekh Raj Sharma, Advocate, for the petitioner
Mr. Dhruv Dayal, DAG, Haryana

Fateh Deep Singh, J. (Oral)

The allegations against the present petitioner namely Parveen are that he along with their co-accused non-applicants obtained jobs to the post of Assistant Lineman in Uttar Haryana Bijli Vitran Nigam after producing forged educational certificates in respect of their educational qualification.

The contention of counsel for the petitioner Mr. Lekh Raj Sharma is that similarly placed co-accused have been allowed anticipatory/regular bail vide orders dated 20.5.2015/16.6.2015 and which is sought to be refuted on the grounds that the petitioner has obtained pecuniary benefits on the basis of this fraud.

In view of principle of parity with the other co-accused who have already been allowed bail and without meaning to express any opinion on the merits, the instant bail petition is allowed. Bail to the satisfaction of learned Chief Judicial Magistrate/Duty Magistrate, Sonapat.
