.....Petitioner(s)

Versus

State of Haryana

...Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE ANITA CHAUDHRY

Present: Mr. R.S. Budhwar, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. G.S. Salwara, DAG, Haryana.

ANITA CHAUDHRY, J.

The petitioner is seeking regular bail in FIR No. 156 dated 18.07.2014, registered under Sections 302 IPC, Police Station Kurukshetra University, District Kurukshetra.

Heard.

Counsel for the petitioner contends that the case was adjourned to enable the State to inform this Court whether the statement of the complainant has been recorded. He urges that the incident is said to have taken place on 18.07.2014 and the petitioner was arrested on 12.03.2015 and the complainant is avoiding the Court. He urges that it was the petitioner who had taken Vikas to the hospital and later on was challaned by the police.

Zimni orders shown in the Court show that service had been effected on the complainant but he had not appeared and bailable warrants of arrest had been issued against him. The deceased had been taken to the hospital when he felt uncomfortable at the hotel. It was the petitioner who had informed the family of the deceased. The complainant had raised a finger at the petitioner and the owner of Welcome Hotel. The petitioner was arrested after eight months of the incident. It appears that the trial would take time to conclude. Without commenting upon the merits of the case, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is directed to be released on regular bail on execution of adequate personal and surety bonds to the satisfaction of trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
