RAJ MOHAN SINGH, J.

Petitioners seek issuance of directions to official respondents to protect their life and liberty.

Petitioners No.1 and 2 are husband and wife, whereas, petitioner No.3 is their daughter-in-law. Petitioners claim that there is no criminal case registered against them. One Kulwinder performed love marriage with one Jyoti. Son of petitioners No.1 and 2 along with other friends of Kulwinder allegedly helped them. The alleged help provided by son of petitioners No.1 and 2 ultimately prompted the private respondents to harass and humiliate the petitioners in collusion with police officers, who are allegedly raiding the house of the petitioners without there being any antecedent criminal activity on their part. Petitioners have already moved a representation dated 28.5.2015 before Government of Pujab including Director General of Police, Punjab and Senior Superintendent of Police, Patiala.

In view of aforesaid, Senior Superintendent of Police, Patiala is directed to have a fair look at the grievance of the petitioners. The authority may evolve its own mechanism of extracting truth and if the claim of the petitioners is found to be having some substance, needful in the context of providing protection be considered by the authority in accordance with law. In the aforesaid exercise, if presence of the petitioners is required, they may be summoned by resorting the lawful means and not otherwise.

Petition stands disposed of.
