CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER

Present : Mr.Arjun Puri, Advocate
for the petitioner.

MAHESH GROVER, J.

After hearing the learned counsel for the petitioner, I find no reason to release the petitioner on pre-arrest bail considering the fact that she is a proclaimed offender.

Faced with this situation, learned counsel for the petitioner prays for permission to withdraw the instant petition with a request that the petitioner would submit herself to law and surrender before the court of competent jurisdiction. He prays that in the eventuality of a prayer for regular bail being made, that should be considered and decided expeditiously.

Noticing the limited prayer made by the learned counsel for the petitioner, I deem it appropriate to dispose of the instant petition with a direction that in case the petitioner submits herself to law and surrenders before the court of competent jurisdiction within one week from today and makes a prayer for regular bail, the same shall be considered and decided by the said court as expeditiously as possible but not later than three days from the date of such application.
