Learned counsel for the petitioners states that in case the petitioners are granted anticipatory bail, the petitioners shall appear before the investigating officer and cooperate in the investigation.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State, on instructions from ASI Sukhjinder Singh, states that in order to unearth the scam, custodial interrogation of the petitioners is necessary.

On June 29, 2015, learned counsel for the petitioners had contended that the petitioners have already deposited the alleged fake certificate.

Taking into consideration the fact that the petitioners have already deposited the alleged fake certificate, it is ordered that in the event of arrest of the petitioners, they shall be released on anticipatory bail to the satisfaction of the arresting officer. However, the petitioners shall join the investigation as and when directed by the investigating agency and shall abide by the terms and conditions laid down under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.
