KULDIP SINGH, J. (ORAL)

The allegations against the petitioner are that he is a depot-holder and that he was found carrying 25 gunny bags each weighing 50 kg. of foodgrain, which was meant for public distribution. It is alleged that the said foodgrain was meant for poor people and was being taken for sale.

In view of the seriousness of the allegations, free hands need to be given to the police to interrogate the petitioner. No ground to grant the anticipatory bail to the petitioner is made out.

Dismissed.
