Present: Mr. U.K. Agnihotri, Advocate for the petitioner.

for the complainant.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Petitioner seeks bail pending trial in FIR No.295 dated 27.06.2014 under Sections 302, 120-B IPC and Section 25 of Arms Act, registered at Police Station Kharkhoda, District Sonapat.

Learned counsel for the petitioner places reliance on two orders passed by this Court, whereby Satbir Singh and Amit, both co-accused of the present petitioner were granted bail by this Court. Learned counsel for the petitioner further submits that petitioner is identically placed with his abovesaid co-accused Amit and Satbir Singh. He prays for allowing the present petition.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State submits that although the case of the petitioner is similar one to that of his abovesaid co-accused namely Amit and Satbir Singh, yet he is not entitled for bail pending trial for the reason that allegations are direct and serious. He prays for dismissal of the present petition.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and after careful perusal of the record of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that keeping in view the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case and particularly the two orders passed by this Court in the cases of abovesaid two co-accused of the petitioner, he has also been found entitled for bail pending trial.

During the course of hearing, despite having made his best efforts, learned counsel for the State could not distinguish the case of the present petitioner from that of his abovesaid two co-accused namely Amit and Satbir Singh. Further, since the prosecution evidence is still going on, conclusion of trial will take some time.

In view of the above and without commenting anything further on merits at this stage, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties, present petition is allowed. Petitioner is directed to be released on bail pending trial on his furnishing adequate bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of learned trial Court.

Disposed of, accordingly.
