Date of Decision : 22.07.2015

....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER

Present : Mr. Kamal Narula, Advocate for the petitioner
Mr. Rupam Aggarwal, DAG, Punjab

MAHESH GROVER, J.

The petitioner prays for grant of regular bail in terms of Section 439 Cr.P.C in case FIR no. 5 dated 4.1.2015 registered under Sections 452, 324, 323, 427, 148, 149 IPC later on 307 IPC added at Police Station Sadar Ferozepur, District Ferozepur.

The petitioner alongwith 13-14 other persons is said to have entered the house of the complainant and caused injuries to almost all present in the house. Five persons were injured in the process.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that array of accused persons has been enlarged. The petitioner is shown to be present empty handed with no specific role attributed to him.

Learned counsel for the respondents contends that the petitioner was present in furtherance of common intention to eliminate the family of the complainant. The fact that five persons have been injured indicates serious nature of the allegations of trespass and causing injuries.

On due consideration of the matter and noticing the fact that the petitioner is in custody since 10.1.2015 and he was not armed even though shown to be present on the site and no specific role has been attributed to him, I deem it to be a fit case to grant concession of bail under Section 439

Cr.P.C to the petitioner. Ordered accordingly. It is directed that the petitioner be released on bail in terms of Section 439 Cr.P.C. Bail to the satisfaction of the learned Trial Court.

Nothing said herein shall be construed to be an expression on the merits of the case.
