Jagjeet Singh @ Jaggi

..... Petitioner

Vs.

State of Punjab and another

..... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASWANT SINGH

Present: Mr. Munish Singla, Advocate for
Mr. Dinesh Kumar, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Rimplejeet Kaur, Assistant Advocate General, Punjab
for respondent No.1/State along with ASI Billu Singh.

JASWANT SINGH, J. (Oral)

Present petition under Section 482 Cr.P.C. is for quashing of FIR No.82 dated 15.06.2015, under Sections 341, 336, 506, 34, IPC and under Section 25/54 of the Arms Act, registered with Police Station Dirbha, District Sangrur (Annexure P-1) and the subsequent proceedings on the basis of compromise dated 27.06.2015 (Annexure P-2) arrived at between the parties.

As per allegations in the FIR, on 15.06.2015, when complainant-Bara Singh being Member of the Co-operative Society was busy in the election, petitioner/accused-Jagjeet Singh @ Jaggi along with three other unknown persons, armed with Pistol and Gandasi respectively, waylaid the complainant and threatened him for casting vote in favour of the petitioner/accused.

Vide order dated 09.07.2015, this Court directed the learned Illaqa Magistrate/trial Court to send report with regard to compromise in pursuance of which, a report/letter No. 198 dated 22.07.2015 has been received from the learned Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Sunam, which is taken on record as Mark-A. It is stated in the report that the complainant-Bara Singh has arrived at a compromise with the petitioner/accused-Jagjeet Singh @ Jaggi without any undue influence or pressure and he has no objection if the aforesaid FIR is quashed on the basis of compromise.

Learned State Counsel, on instructions from ASI Billu Singh, states that challan has not been presented. She further states that she is unable to raise any serious objection to the quashing of the FIR on the basis of the compromise since the complainant is not willing to support the prosecution case.

Hon'ble Supreme Court in (2003) 4 SCC 675, B.S Joshi & Others Vs. State of Haryana & Another has made it explicitly clear in para 15 of its judgment that the High Court in exercise of its inherent powers can quash criminal proceedings or FIR or complaint and Section 320 of the Code does not limit or effect the powers under Section 482 of the Code.

A Full Bench of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others v. State of Punjab and another, 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052 has held that this Court, in appropriate cases, while exercising powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C., may quash an FIR disclosing the commission of non compoundable offences. The relevant extracts read as under:-

“ The only inevitable conclusion from the above discussion is that there is no statutory bar under the Cr.P.C., which can affect the inherent power of this Court under Section 482. Further, the same cannot be limited to matrimonial cases alone and the Court has the wide power to quash the proceedings even in non-compoundable offences notwithstanding the bar under Section 320 of the Cr.P.C., in order to prevent the abuse of law and to secure the ends of justice. ”

Hon'ble Apex Court in another case in J.T 2008(9) S.C 192, Nikhil Merchant Vs. Central Bureau of Investigation & Another while relying upon its decision in B.S. Joshi's case (supra) has also held that in view of the compromise arrived at between the parties, the technicalities should not be allowed to stand in the way in the quashing of criminal proceedings and the continuance of the same after compromise between the parties would be a futile exercise.

Similar views were expressed by Hon'ble the Apex Court in Madan Mohan Abot v. State of Punjab, 2008(4) SCC 582, the relevant extract of which is as under:-

“ We need to emphasise that it is perhaps advisable that in disputes where the question involved is of a purely personal nature, the court should ordinarily accept the terms of the compromise even in criminal proceedings as keeping the matter alive with no possibility of a result in favour of the prosecution is a luxury which the courts, grossly overburdened as they are, cannot afford and that the time so saved can be utilised in deciding more effective and meaningful litigation. This is a common sense approach to the matter based on ground of realities and bereft of the technicalities of the law. ”

Keeping in view the above settled legal position and taking into account the fact that both the parties have desired to live in peace and harmony and carry on with their lives without any ill will or rancour by resolving their differences and entering into the aforesaid compromise, it is evident that it is a fit case where there is no impediment in the way of the Court to exercise its inherent powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C., for quashing of the FIR in the interest of justice.

Accordingly, the present petition is allowed and FIR No.82 dated 15.06.2015, under Sections 341, 336, 506, 34, IPC and under Section 25/54 of the Arms Act, registered with Police Station Dirbha, District Sangrur (Annexure P-1) and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom, are quashed.
