RAJIVE BHALLA, J (ORAL)

The appellant-wife challenges judgment and decree dated 27.07.1996, whereby a decree for judicial separation was passed.

The appeal was admitted on 16.09.1999. The matter remained pending for one reason or the other and at one stage was even referred to the Lok Adalat, where the matter was repeatedly adjourned and eventually as neither the appellant nor her counsel put in appearance, the matter was returned to the Registry. Mr. Amit Jain, Advocate, prayed for time on 02.08.2011 to file a Vakalatnama on behalf of the appellant as counsel for the appellant had been elevated to the Bench of this Court. Mr. Sunil K.Rana, Advocate, thereafter made a statement on behalf of Mr. Amit Jain, Advocate that despite letters addressed to the appellant she is not responding. A notice issued to the appellant was received back with the report that the address is incomplete.

We have considered the entire matter and as the complete address of the appellant is not available and counsel for the appellant is not in a position to furnish the correct address of the appellant, the appeal is dismissed for non-prosecution.
