Petitioner has been indicted in the case on the basis of circumstantial evidence which appears to be evidence of confessional statement made before the police and his connivance with other co-accused. Petitioner is alleged to have conspired with other co-accused.

The authenticity of the circumstantial evidence available on the record cannot be appreciated, at this stage.

On asking of the Court, it has been informed that the prosecution has examined eight witnesses and that thirteen more witnesses are yet to be examined. Petitioner has been in custody w.e.f. 24.09.2013.

Since material witnesses have been examined, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the petition with liberty that in case the trial is not concluded within a period of four months, he may approach this Court again seeking bail.
