... Petitioner

Vs.

State of Haryana

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr. Surender Saini, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Manoj Kumar Sangwan, DAG, Haryana.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (ORAL)

Petitioner seeks bail pending trial in FIR No.576 dated 29.12.2014 under Section 136 of Electricity Act (Amended) 2003, registered at Police Station Kharkhoda, District Sonapat.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner was arrested in FIR No.46 dated 26.01.2015 under Sections 25/54/59 of Arms Act. Thereafter, he was shown involved in seven other FIRs which had already been registered against unknown persons. In such a situation, false implication of the petitioner cannot be ruled out. He prays for allowing the present petition.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State, on instructions from ASI Baljeet Singh Singh, Police Station Kharkhoda, District Sonapat, submits that since the petitioner has suffered disclosure statement in the abovesaid FIR No.46 dated 26.01.2015 and thereafter, recovery has been effected from the petitioner, his involvement in other FIRs has been established. He prays for dismissal of the present petition.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and after careful perusal of the record of the case, this Court is of the considered opinion that in the given fact situation of the present case, petitioner has been found entitled for bail pending trial. It is so said because petitioner is inside the jail for the last more than six months. So far as his involvement in other cases is concerned, this Court refrains itself from making any observation, lest it should prejudice the rights of either of the parties.

In view of the above and without commenting anything further on merits of this case, present petition is allowed. Petitioner is directed to be released on bail pending trial on his furnishing adequate bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of learned trial Court.

Disposed of, accordingly.
