....Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE MAHESH GROVER

....

Present : Mr.Brijender Kaushik, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr.Anmol Malik, AAG, Haryana.

Ms.Prasanna Venkat, Advocate for the complainant.

MAHESH GROVER, J.

This is a petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C. praying for release of the petitioner on bail in terms thereof in a case registered vide FIR No.65 dated 22.3.2014 under Sections 420/467/468/471 IPC at Police Station Sector 55-56, Gurgaon.

The matter had been referred to the Mediation and Conciliation Centre of this Court where the parties have resolved their differences in the following terms :

“a) Both the parties have agreed to settle the matter for Rs.7,90,000/- (Seven Lacs Ninty Thousand only) as full and final settlement towards all claims and counter claims against each other. It is agreed that first party will pay Rs.7,90,000/- (Seven Lacs Ninty Thousand only) to second party by demand draft drawn in the name of second party. i.e. Mr. Vijay Kumar, payable at Dehi, before the Court which has referred the matter for mediation. The photocopy of the Draft will be handed over to the Second Party on Monday i.e. 06.07.2015.

- b) The second party has agreed to withdraw all criminal and civil complaints/cases filed against the first party.
- c) The second party has agreed to :-
 - i) cooperate and assist first party in getting the clearance of title of property in dispute.
 - ii) Provide NOC if required by Ansal Buildwell Ltd.
 - iii) To assist in execution of conveyance deed if required by Ansal Builldwel Ltd.”

Learned counsel for the parties who are present in court support the aforesaid settlement on instructions from their respective clients. A draft of Rs.7,90,000/- has been handed over to the complainant in terms of the settlement.

In view of the above, when the matter has been settled amicably, there would be no purpose served by keeping the proceedings pursuant to the abovesaid FIR alive. Therefore, this Court deems it to be a fit case to exercise its powers under Section 482 Cr.P.C. at this juncture to quash the FIR itself. Ordered accordingly.

In view of the FIR being quashed, the present prayer under Section 438 Cr.P.C. has been rendered infructuous.

Petition stands disposed of as having become infructuous.
