NAVITA SINGH, J. (Oral)

This is a petition under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973, for quashing of the Criminal Complaint No.23 dated 08.06.2009 whereby the petitioner was convicted under Sections 406, 498-A IPC, with permission to compound the offences, on the basis of compromise, along with all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom.

Report is received from the trial Court that complainant made a statement regarding the compromise and in the report of the Court below it is mentioned that she was identified by her counsel. Statement of the petitioner was also recorded.

It has been stated by counsel for the parties that the petitioner was convicted by the trial Court for the offences punishable under Sections 406 and 498-A IPC and appeal against the said conviction and sentence has been filed before the Sessions Court. It has been further stated that now the parties have compromised the matter. The dispute between the parties was of personal nature. In view of this, there should not be any impediment in allowing the parties to compromise the matter. Support to this view can be had from the authority Madan Mohan Abbot vs. State of Punjab, 2008 (2) RCR (Criminal) 429, wherein Hon'ble the Supreme Court has ruled that in such type of cases where the dispute is of personal nature, Court should ordinarily accept the compromise.

In view of the above, the petition is accepted. The permission to compound the offences is granted and the aforesaid complaint and the proceedings connected therewith are hereby quashed.

Disposed of.
