HARI PAL VERMA J.(Oral)

Prayer in the present petition filed under Section 439 CrPC is for grant of regular bail to the petitioner namely Kulwant Singh in FIR No.RC0512012(S)/0009/2012 dated 13.12.2012 under Sections 302, 307, 326, 324, 201, 34 IPC and Sections 25 and 27 of the Arms Act registered at Police Station CBI/SCB, Chandigarh.

The Hon'ble Apex Court vide order dated 16.9.2013, while dismissing the SLP (Criminal) No.7575 of 2013, has passed the following order:-

In view of the allegations levelled and of the fact that the High Court itself has extended the period of investigation by C.B.I. by another three months by order dated 31st August, 2013, at this juncture, we are not inclined to entertain the special leave petition.

However, if the same position continues till the end of December, 2013, the petitioner is free to move the Trial Court by way of appropriate petition for bail.

With the above observation, the special leave petition is dismissed.”

In the light of the aforesaid order, learned senior counsel was put a specific question regarding filing of the present bail application. The Apex Court while dismissing the SLP has given liberty to the petitioner to approach the trial Court by moving appropriate petition for grant of bail.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner be relegated to trial Court for the relief claimed in this petition.

Without commenting upon the merits of the case, this petition is disposed of with liberty to the petitioner to approach the trial Court for the relief claimed in this petition.

It is made clear that the observations made here-in-above shall not be construed as an expression on the merits of the case and trial Court shall decide the case on the basis of material available before it.
