

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB & HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M-22608-2015 (O & M)
Date of decision:27.08.2015

Parvinder Singh @ Parminder Singh @ Pappu ...Petitioner(s)

Versus

State of Punjab ...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJAN GUPTA

Present: Mr. M.K. Singla, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Ms. Rajni Gupta, Addl.A.G., Punjab.

Mr. Vivek Gupta, Advocate, for the complainant.

Rajan Gupta, J. (oral)

This is a petition under Section 439 Cr.P.C. seeking regular bail to petitioner in a case registered against him vide FIR No.379 dated 20.08.2007 originally under Sections 308/341/148 and 149 IPC (however final report under Section 173 Cr.P.C. has been filed only under Sections 325/323/341/148 and 149 IPC), at Police Station Sadar Patiala, District Patiala.

Petitioner is stated to be in custody since June 10, 2015. According to learned counsel for the petitioner, all the offences are bailable in nature. Thus, petitioner deserves concession of bail.

Learned State counsel has opposed the prayer for bail. She submits that petitioner has jumped the bail and was declared a proclaimed offender.

Heard.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case, I am of the considered view that no useful purpose will be served by detaining the petitioner any longer. Thus, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this petition is allowed and the petitioner is directed to be released on bail to the satisfaction of Chief Judicial Magistrate/Duty Magistrate, Patiala. As the FIR pertains to the year 2007 and petitioner is responsible for delaying the proceedings, trial court may impose such conditions on him as it deems necessary to prevent him from absconding during trial. Proceedings be completed expeditiously.
