CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK

Present: Mr.Anil Kumar Gahlawat, Advocate for the petitioner.

RAMESHWAR SINGH MALIK, J. (Oral)

Petitioner seeks bail pending trial in FIR No.12 dated 30.1.2015 registered under Sections 420, 406, 467, 468 and 471 of the Indian Penal Code at Police Station, Jatusana, District Rewari.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that earlier a compromise was arrived at between the parties and an application to that effect was submitted before the Incharge, Economic Offences Wing, Rewari. However, thereafter the complainant turned dishonest and the impugned FIR was registered. He prays for allowing the present petition.

On the other hand, learned counsel for the State, on instructions from HC Vinod Kumar, Police Station, Jatusana, District Rewari, submits that after investigation of the matter, report under Section 173 Cr.P.C. has already been presented and the petitioner is liable to face the criminal trial. He prays for dismissal of the present petition.

Having heard the learned counsel for the parties, after careful perusal of the record of the case and giving thoughtful consideration to the contentions raised, this Court is of the considered opinion that keeping in view the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case, petitioner has been found entitled for bail pending trial. It is so said because the above-said factual position narrated by the learned counsel for the petitioner that initially the matter was compromised between the parties, will also entitle the petitioner for bail pending trial. Further since the trial is at the initial stage, final conclusion thereof will take some time.

In view of the above and without commenting anything further on merits at this stage, the instant petition is allowed. Petitioner is directed to be released on bail pending trial on his furnishing adequate bail bonds/surety bonds to the satisfaction of learned trial Court.

Disposed of, accordingly.
